Regular Courses

Each week consists of 15 hours of classes, using a variety of teaching activities to improve students' listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills in Mandarin.

Classes are arranged based on students' Mandarin proficiency levels. Additionally, we offer live online Mandarin courses that can be customized to meet individual learning needs.

"Join Southern Taiwan for a Summer Mandarin Study Abroad Experience!"

The Center also offers an intensive summer Mandarin program to meet students' learning needs. The program includes Mandarin lessons, cultural courses (such as pottery, indigenous dance, Hakka indigo dyeing, calligraphy, martial arts, and more), and cultural experiences (like visiting historical sites and experiencing Taiwanese food culture), allowing students to immerse themselves in Taiwan's culture and cuisine.

Students' Activities

- Cultural and Exchange Activities
- Mandarin Achievement Presentation
- Cultural Heritage Tours
- Lunar New Year Celebrations

Do You Offer a Certificate of Completion?

Students who complete the course and pass the evaluation will receive a certificate of completion in Chinese and English from our Center.
